Dealing with conflict made easier

Conflict resolution can be extremely uncomfortable, to the extent that many of us will avoid it all costs. We might even let a conflict simmer just to avoid the uneasiness of confronting someone or confronting the issue it-self. Perhaps one reminder can help us with this.

There is a verse that is often quoted out of context that applies to this subject. Jesus said, “For where two or three are gathered together in My name, I am there in the midst of them” (Matt. 18:20). This verse is often used (incorrectly) of a small worship gathering to prove that Jesus is there. It is true that Jesus is there (ex: Matt. 26:29; Heb. 2:11-12), but this verse addresses the effort to reconcile a “fault” that exists between brethren (Matt. 18:15-20). When such is done as Scripture prescribes (i.e., “in My name”), Jesus Himself says, “I am there.”

Are you dealing with a conflict? Pray about it. Ask God for wisdom (Jas. 1:5). Ask God for a forgiving heart (Matt. 6:12-15). Ask God to go with you (Heb. 13:5-6). When you follow His plan, you will not be alone! Always remember that conflict is not to straighten out the other person it is to align your heart to the Lord.
