God does not forget, so you must not forget

It would seem that the Lord loves His people so much that He wants to be front and centre of their minds in all that they do.

Deuteronomy 6:10–15 (ESV)

<sup>10</sup> “And when the LORD your God brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you—with great and good cities that you did not build, <sup>11</sup> and houses full of all good things that you did not fill, and cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant—and when you eat and are full, <sup>12</sup> then take care lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. <sup>13</sup> It is the LORD your God you shall fear. Him you shall serve and by his name you shall swear. <sup>14</sup> You shall not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples who are around you— <sup>15</sup> for the LORD your God in your midst is a jealous God—lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth.

Sometimes, we wonder if anybody knows or cares what we do for others. Maybe we feel like we’re always the one giving, but not very often on the receiving end. Perhaps we are forgetting too much and not remembering enough. The word “forget” is found three times in the book of Hebrews.

First, the author wants Christians to remember that “God is not unjust to forget your work and labour of love” in your ministering to the saints (Heb. 6:10). God does not forget the work that you do for others in “His name.” Whether others remember is really of no consequence.

So, then, at the end of the book, the author calls upon these Christians, whom God is not forgetting, not to forget their own responsibilities. “Do not forget to show hospitality” (13:2), and “do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased” (13:16). Don’t forget that last part! God does not forget what you do for others, so don’t forget to do it!

This week, as you walk by doing what honours and enhances God’s image in this world, may we never forget how we got here and who brought us here.

Love in Him who died on the cross so we could have life and have it to the full.
